

YOUNG ARTISTS PROJECT WORKSHOP INFORMATION

Thank you for your interest in one of Centrum's Middle School or Elementary workshops. Middle School and Elementary school students attend Centrum programs as part of a group of four to six students with an adult chaperone. Programs are week long, residential experiences in the arts and sciences. They take place at Fort Worden State Park in Port Townsend, WA. Please make sure your student is in a designated group and identify your group and chaperone on the student registration form. Every person who attends a program at Centrum must be registered. If you are a chaperone, please complete the registration process. There is no charge for chaperones.

Included in this packet please find for students:

- ✓ Student registration form
- ✓ Required medical release form
- ✓ Student behavioral contract

And for chaperones:
